AN INSPECTION INVITED. Hongkong, 1st March, 1906.

A-BROKEN-DOWN SYSTEM, This is a condition of the body which gives many names, but which few of them really understand. It is simply weakness—a break-down, as it were, of the vital forces that sustain the system.

No matter what may be the cause (for they are almost innumerable), the symptoms are much the same: the more prominent being sleeplessness, sense of prostration, nervousness, depression of spirits and want of energy in all the ordinary affairs of life. Now, what alone is absolutely essential in all such cases is a vigorous vitality—vigour.

VITAL STRENGTH AND ENERGY to throw off these morbid feelings, and experience proves that as night succeeds the day this may be more easily secured by a course of the celebrated life-restoring tonic.

THERAPION No. 3, than by any other known combination. So easily as it is taken in accordance with the printed directions accompanying it, will the shattered health be restored.

THE EXPIRING LAMP OF LIFE LIGHTED UP AFRESH, and a new brilliance imparted in place of what had been a gloomy, morbid, "break-down" and "weakness." This wonderful restorative is purely vegetable and innocuous, it agrees to the taste and is suitable for all constitutions and conditions, either easy and is difficult to imagine a case of sleeplessness or nervousness whose cause is not due to a deficiency of vitality, that will not be speedily and permanently benefited by this ever-falling restorative tonic, which is destined to cast into oblivion everything that has preceded it for this wide-spread and numerous class of human ailments.

THERAPION, the principal Chemist throughout the world, (Priced in England 10 and 40s. Purchasers should see that the word "THERAPION" appears on British Government Stamp (in white letters on a red ground) affixed to every package by order of His Majesty's Home Commissioners, and without which it is a forgery.

fluenced the Mint authorities to believe that 65 cents an ounce was too dear, but it has knowledge of movements which must have been in the possession of the Government, which should have led to an entirely different conclusion. Early in July the Indian Government announced that henceforth the $52,000,000 gold reserve fund, which is now mainly held in London in securities, would be called the gold standard reserve fund, and the announcement was followed up by a policy of adding to its stock of rupees to be drawn upon in case of emergency. The object is to prevent the Indian Government being made the victim of the manipulators of the silver market in the future, but the preparations being made to achieve it have caused a temporary rise, which it seems the U.S. authorities are disposed to bear the brunt of, as the purchase by the Mint at the enhanced price shows. Our contemporary saddles Congress with the blame of the bungle, trenchantly remarking that the whole business of acquiring silver for the purpose of supplying additional subsidiary coins has been bungled by Congress. There is no reason in the world why some portion of the tremendous quantity of silver dollars now piled up in the Treasury should not have been utilized for that purpose, suggests our contemporary. Theoretically those dollars are a backing for $481,392,000 of certificates, but practically they are nothing of the kind. Recent legislation has made the silver certificate interchangeable with gold, and therefore the dollars in the Treasury cannot be regarded in any other light than as so much silver bullion. But even if it was assumed that under the law as it stands there must be a silver dollar in the Treasury for every dollar's worth of silver certificates emitted, there would still be plenty of dollars available for melting down. During the long period in which silver certificates have been issued—over a quarter of a century—a great number of them must have been destroyed and lost. The amount they represent must run up into the millions. Necessarily the dollars against which no certificates are outstanding are available for the public use, and common sense demands that they should be so employed. Concluding its line of criticisms, the Chronicle says:—"But common sense does not prevail in the management of our monetary affairs. In June, 1879, an act of Congress was passed by which $38,375,934 of fractional currency was estimated as lost or destroyed, that left still presumably outstanding $6,865,737.28 of that character of money. The public debt statement still carries this amount as an obligation still to be met by the Government, although it is notorious that every scrap of fractional currency still in existence is held as a curio, and that there is not the remotest probability of any of it ever being presented for redemption. It is safe to estimate that at least $20,000,000 of silver certificates have been lost or destroyed, but in spite of this fact we go into the market and buy silver at fancy prices, when we might as well use some of the bullion in the dollars reposing in the Treasury vaults. We don't do it because, through stupidity, our representatives in Congress prefer to throw the people's money to the birds."

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

We learn from a vernacular contemporary that the British Minister at Peking has fixed the 31st inst. for a meeting with the Board of Foreign Affairs regarding Kowloon-Canton Railway matters.

EVEN years' imprisonment, with hard labour, was the sentence passed upon Wong Chui and 'au Yan who were found guilty by the jury, by his Honour the Chief Justice, at the Criminal Sessions, of robbery, under duress, stances already recorded in these columns.

TENDERS were invited in Shanghai for docking two torpedo-boat destroyers on or about 17th October. Tenders stating date and time that docking can be carried out and specifying whether it is proposed to dock these vessels separately or in the same dock should be received by the Senior British Naval Officer on board H.M.S. Chio by 9 a.m. on 16th inst. Tenders were also invited for the repair of H.M. gunboat Trial.

CAPTAIN Andersen, of the Norwegian barque Prince George 471 tons, bound from Manila which port she left on 26th ult., with a load of scrap-iron for this port, reports that she was struck by a typhoon on the 6th inst., in lat. 19 N., 139 42 E. Her top gallant masts were carried away, the main-mast being sprung, trying to secure things one of the Chinese crew lost two of his fingers. There was no other damage.

REFERRING to the import of sugar in anticipation of the new Customs Tariff, Japanese contemporaries state that the import in Tokyo and Yokohama amounted to about 185,000 piculs, in Osaka and in Kobe about 180,000 piculs, and in Nagasaki and other places about 60,000 piculs—a grand total of 430,000 piculs. In addition, a large amount of crude sugar was imported. The 430,000 piculs of sugar is equal to the consumption in this country for nine months. Saccharine has also been extensively imported. The export of sugar to China is expected to fall off, and the sugar-market in Japan is at present weak, a state of affairs which will be aggravated by the restoration of peace in Cuba.

GOOD accounts have been received concerning the light gun practice of the China Squadron. We have frequently expressed the hope in these notes that the squadron will again take in the annual return of the gunlayer's practice. A little bit of the highly commendable, added to a proper esprit de corps, does a lot in stimulating all hands to excel at the target. The day of sport and polish is over, and gunnery, gunnery, is the word. —L. G. Express.

LANG Chi, a hawker, 10, New Street, was doing a big business selling theatre tickets on the footpath of Queen's Road West, yesterday afternoon, when a policeman stopped the sale and took Lang in tow to the West Point Police Station. He was arrested because he did not possess a hawker's ticket. He was arraigned before Mr. H. H. J. Gompertz, this morning, at the Police Court, on the charge, "I was not selling," and the defendant, "I was simply giving them away!" "Pay a fine of $5," said the Court.

A RACE of giants will inhabit England in 1950. The average size of the inhabitants of the country will have increased 10 1/2 in., and the average weight 11 lbs. The average length of life will have increased nearly ten years, and disease will have almost disappeared. These were the predictions made in a paper read at the concluding session of the sanitary inspectors' conference at Blackpool. The address took the form of quotations from an imaginary review of the sanitary achievements of the last century ending in 1950.

BY kind permission of Lieut.-Col. A. G. Eiton, D.S.O., and Officers of the Band of the 2nd Battalion, "The Queen's Own" (Royal West Kent Regt.) will play the following programme of music, during dinner, at the Hongkong Hotel, on Saturday, 20th inst.:

March "Under the Double Eagle" W. Wagner
Overture "The Merry Widow" F. Strauss
Mendelssohn and Rhein "Volkslied" Chant Sans Paroles "Chanson Triste" Tchaikovsky
Reminiscences of England "Moonlight" F. Schubert
Grand March from "Fountain" Wagner
God Save the King.

At the instance of Sergeant Fenton, at the Police Court, this morning, two truck coaches were charged before Mr. H. H. J. Gompertz, with carelessly driving their truck along D.S. Vieux Road West, yesterday afternoon. They admitted the offence. The defendants were in charge of a loaded truck and were racing eastwards at a very fast rate. The men could not put themselves up in time when nearing a corner, with the result that an old woman, close on sixty years of age, was knocked down, the wheels of the truck passing over both of her feet. She came to the Court this morning in a chair and remained in the courtroom until the case was over. The toes of her feet were in bandages. There she was inspected by the Magistrate, and as it was no doubt a serious affair for a woman of her age, his Worship ordered both defendants give the woman $10 each as compensation.

THE HONGKONG PRIGS.

Another murder was perpetrated in Hongkong on Saturday night, reports the N. C. D. News of 13th inst. At about 10 p.m., five sailors from S.M.S. Itiri went into a restaurant, No. 734, Fearon Road, kept by a Japanese named Komachi Yamamura, and were served with a quantity of food, drink, cigars, etc. Having remained so long as they required the sailors proceeded to walk out of the restaurant without offering payment for the refreshment. The proprietor spoke to the men about the bill and immediately a row commenced. One of the sailors, in the neck, brand the left shoulder and in the small of the back. An assistant in the shop, one Katsun Nguchi, went to his master's rescue but he too was badly stabbed in the neck and slashed terribly about the body. One other Japanese was also injured but only slightly. Information was conveyed to the police, and all available men in the Hongkong district were sent out to search for the German sailors, four of whom were arrested three-quarters of an hour later at the Hotel Europe, in Minghong Road. The injured Japanese had been speedily conveyed to hospital where their terrible wounds were attended to. Yesterday, at 10.20 a.m., Komachi Yamamura died of his injuries, while Nguchi is in a critical condition. [This man has, since died.—J. H. K.T.] In the afternoon the Japanese authorities opened an inquest, at which medical evidence was given that deceased died as a result of the knife wounds inflicted on him. The sailors were yesterday morning placed under arrest on board their ship and it is understood that the wife of Yamamura and other Japanese will be able to identify the man who committed the deed, it being asserted that only one knife was drawn.

CHINESE MINISTER IN HONGKONG.

His Excellency Wu Ting-fang, Chinese ex-Minister to Washington, was a passenger on board the Pacific Mail Steamship Company's liner Siberia which arrived in port this morning from Shanghai.

Soon after the vessel was moored to her buoy a number of prominent Chinese residents paid a call on the Minister.

During the forenoon, H. E. Wu, who is very well-known in the Colony, came ashore and proceeded to the residence of the Hon. Dr. Ho Ka, his brother-in-law, where he will reside during his stay in the Colony.

His Excellency proceeded to the South on a three months' leave for the purpose of worshipping his ancestral tombs in San-Chi, for which place he leaves on the 2nd inst.

THE S.S. "HANKOW."

At a late hour this afternoon the s.s. Hankow, which was practically destroyed by fire on 30th day, was towed by the Dock Co.'s s.s. Edith into Kowloon Bay. She, too, will take a berth in the docks as soon as one is available. Practically the s.s. Hankow will have to be reconstructed.

CRIMINAL SESSIONS.

ALLEGED MANSLUGHTER.

The second day's sessions of the Criminal Sessions was held to-day, his Honour the Chief Justice presiding, when the case of George Street, a warder at Victoria Gaol, was put up for trial, prisoner being charged with manslaughter. The Hon. Sir Henry Berkeley, K.C., instructed by Mr. G. E. Morrell, of the office of Messrs. Denny and Howley, Crown Solicitor, prosecuted, and Mr. W. Slade, instructed by Mr. E. I. Goss, of Messrs. Wilkinson and Grist, defended the prisoner. Prisoner pleaded not guilty.

The following jury was empanelled:—Messrs. Paul Karl Knyett (In-Chief), Walter Ling, Sophus Vilhelm August Hall, James Craik, Georg Friedrich, Charles Schulten-back, and John Byron Scott.

The Hon. the Attorney General, addressing the jury, in his opening statement, said that the prisoner at the bar was a warder employed at Victoria Gaol and he was accused of having caused the death of a Chinese prisoner in that gaol, by name Wu Lok, by striking, kicking, or giving him a blow about the body with his truncheon, while the man was engaged in hard labour, which consisted of shot-drill and stone carrying alternately. The spleen was ruptured, and it was found that he was suffering from an enlarged, but slightly enlarged, spleen, though he made no complaint whatever. It would be shown that the deceased was struck at about half past eleven in the morning, but he continued his work, and took his meal as usual, and made no complaint of any suffering. The next morning he again took his meal, and paraded with the rest of the prisoners, and went to work in due course.

The hard-labour prisoners turn out at 6.15 a.m., and on that morning deceased turned out and worked as usual till 8 a.m., and then he fainted. The prisoner was the warder in charge of the men then, and when he ceased fainted he sent him to the gaol hospital. At the hospital he was examined by Mr. Moore, but no external marks of any injury were found on him. At 10.45 a.m. the same day Mr. Craig, Superintendent of the gaol, saw deceased who made a statement to him, in consequence of which the latter sent for a number of the warders and had them filed past the deceased, the latter being the last of the line. As he passed deceased pointed to him and said he was the man who struck him. Mr. Craig then, being a Justice of the Peace, took down the man's deposition in writing, in the presence of the prisoner. It was then found that deceased was worse than was thought at first, and Mr. Craig ordered his removal to the Government Civil Hospital. He was there seen by Dr. Koch, who at once saw the necessity for operating upon the man, and an operation was accordingly performed, under which the spleen was removed and found to be ruptured, and the patient died as a result. Thus the question for the jury to consider was whether the rupture was caused by a blow, and if so, whether it was by a blow given by the prisoner. The prisoner would tell them that he did not inflict any blow at all, and it would be for them to consider, after hearing the evidence, whether he did or did not inflict the blow alleged to have been struck by him. It must be remembered that the warders in the gaol had no right to strike the prisoners. A prisoner in His Majesty's Gaol was as much entitled to protection from assault as any other person in the land, and no one had any right to strike them except under the order of the Court sentencing a prisoner to corporal punishment. If the jury found that the prisoner did inflict a blow, and that that blow ruptured the spleen of the deceased, thereby causing his death, they must return a verdict of guilty of manslaughter against the prisoner; otherwise they must acquit.

Evidence was then adduced. The case for the prosecution practically failed, as the medical witnesses would not state whether it was possible for a man with a ruptured spleen to continue at hard labour, sleep, take his meals and line up for parade without in any way complaining, or whether the rupture would not cause a collapse and incapacitate him from further work, though finally they thought it scarcely possible. The Hon. the Attorney General then said that in that case he would not call any further evidence, but would leave the case in the hands of the Court.

Mr. Slade said that under the circumstances his client was entitled to the benefit of a doubt, but he would prefer to be honourably acquitted. Counsel then reviewed the evidence and said the Crown had failed to prove anything against the accused, and asked the jury to acquit him.

His Honour the Chief Justice then briefly summed up, when, without a moment's delay, the jury returned a unanimous verdict of not guilty for the accused who was then discharged, amidst a loud attempt at applause.

CANTON DAY BY DAY.

ADDITION OF SPECIAL PERMIT FEES.

[From Our Own Correspondent.]

Canton, 17th October. There has been for a considerable time past, much discussion concerning the Special Permit Fees, as charged by the Customs on inland towing launches, which almost culminated in a strike, but for the wise steps taken by the Viceroy. Now, by order of H. E. the Viceroy a proclamation has been issued by the Likin Bureau announcing the abolition of these fees. This action on the part of the Viceroy is acknowledged as an excellent example of benevolence to the people.

THE "HANKOW" DISASTER.

H. E. the Viceroy has ordered a weiyuan to proceed to Hongkong to make full inquiries as regards the loss of life, property, etc. in the recent disaster of the burning of the s.s. Hankow.

THE BOYCOTT LEADERS.

The three boycott heros, Messrs. Ma, Pun and Ha, have received an innumerable number of messages of congratulation from their friends and supporters, both at home and abroad, since their release from the Shamho Prison. Yesterday, the Canton Chamber of Commerce received a telegram and a gift of $1,500 (gold) for transmission to these three gentlemen, from the Chinese of the United States expressing their deepest sympathy with them, during their confinement for over a year and offering them their heartiest congratulations, on receiving the news of their release.

POLICE WHISTLES.

As whistles are frequently heard being blown in the streets of Honan without the slightest cause, the Police Department have posted a notice, warning residents to refrain from blowing whistles, unless police assistance is required.

TELEGRAPH ADMINISTRATION.

8th October. Owing to the transference of Antai Wen, the director of the Kwangtung telegraph Administration, to Yunnan and Kweichow, Viceroy Shun has recommended to Viceroy Yuan Shi Kai, the Minister of the Chinese Telegraph Administration at Peking, Mr. Chow Ping Wah, a weiyuan of the Canton Telegraph Administration, and Mr. Wong Ling Chun, an assistant of the same department, as sub-director. A despatch has been received from Peking by Viceroy Shun confirming the appointment, as herein mentioned. Antai Wen has, a few days ago, handed the office over to the two newly appointed officials. The Canton Telephone Bureau also comes under the charge of these officers.

CHAU TUNG SHANG'S ESTATE.

The real and personal property of Chau Tung Shang, which was seized by the Government, last year has been valued at Taels 1,040,089/766, of which Tls. 892,684.39 has been realised on property and interest in business, sold and the remaining Tls. 217,236.77 is the estimated value of property etc. still in the hands of the Government, awaiting to be disposed to prospective buyers.

THE "SINAM" PIRACY.

Reports from Chanchun (Shuntak Prefecture) to hand state that it has been ascertained that the real ringleaders of the piracy on board the Wuchow s.s. Sinam were a certain Lun A Wong and his nephew. An informer gave information to a Shantak Military officer, who, in company with a number of troops, surrounded the house of the pirates at Chiklu Village near Chanchun. During the encounter between pirates and soldiers one of the latter was severely wounded, but ultimately the two pirates were captured and taken prisoner. On trial it transpired that a certain firm of scale makers named Yuen Sun of that locality was the receiver of the stolen goods. Officials immediately visited the shop and seized a great quantity of piece goods, etc. belonging to the pirate steamer. Spies quickly the proprietor and the manager of the establishment were arrested on the charge of receiving stolen goods. A thorough search was also made among the boat people, but to no success. The latest report states that the two pirates have effected their escape from prison and a reward of $100 has been offered for their recapture.

DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION.

The ex-inspector of public instruction of the Canton Educational Department, Mr. Yee Sik Mui, will leave here for Peking to-day per C. S. N. Co.'s s.s. Kowloon.

NEW ROAD.

The newly formed road from the Eastern Gate of the city to Sha He will be about ten ft. in length and the branch road from Tung Ground Monastery to the Northern Parace Ground is about 7 ft. The formation of this "main" is about completed and tenders are now being invited for 200 rickshaws and carriages to be put on this run. The road is from 2 to 3 c. wide besides footpaths on both sides of the road.

S. S. "KINSHAN" RE-FLAGGED.

AT ANCHOR IN KOWLOON BAY.

Exactly a month to a day on the beach in Castle Peak Bay, the s.s. Kinshan was re-flagged last night after three unsuccessful attempts previously. To those who were privileged with the sight of the fine new steamer being towed through the Central Fairway of the harbour at 1.30 p.m., to-day the Kinshan looked as spry and span as if she had only this morning left the builders' hands. There was no outward indication that the steamer had been beached for the past month, and that she escaped scatheless from the buffeting of wind and waves, and from her enforced idleness at Brothers' Point speaks volumes for the solidity of her construction. Until she is dry docked it is not certain what the extent of her damage, if any, is like; but to outward appearance, as already stated, the Kinshan looks as new as the proverbial pin. She now lies at anchor in Kowloon Bay awaiting an available berth in the docks.

Ton much praise cannot be bestowed upon all concerned for the efficient and successful manner in which the salvaging operations have been conducted. The refloating of such a valuable steamer must have occupied many anxious minds for several days and weeks; the success of those operations redounds to the credit of those responsible for the undertaking and demonstrates the practical utility of the dredger—Canton River—which played such a prominent part in the carrying out to a successful conclusion a creditable enterprise.

KOWLOON-CANTON RAILWAY.

FEARFUL AT HO MAN TIN.

One Indian workman was killed and four others—one seriously—injured in the collapse of a sand bank at Ho Man Tin, near Yau-ma-tei, at about two o'clock yesterday afternoon.

At the spot where the fatality occurred there were about twenty Indian workmen employed in cutting the bank of a hill, perpendicularly, to allow the rails for the Kowloon-Canton Railway to be laid. At the back of this hill a gang of native workmen were engaged in similar employment.

The Indians were hard at work at the time, when without the least warning part of the bank above them collapsed, and several tons of earth fell on the workmen.

Three of the workmen were completely buried, two of them fortunately under a very light fall of earth, while two other Indians were partly buried.

The other workmen, who were some distance away, and so were uninjured, raised a cry on seeing the accident that had befallen their fellow-labourers, and several Europeans employed on the works, including the railway medical officers, were promptly on the scene.

Work of extricating the men was soon started and two out of the three men, who were completely buried, were got out in a slightly injured condition, the other being found dead. To release the other two, who were partly buried, was the matter of a few minutes, and on examining them it was found that one was very seriously injured and he was sent to the Government Civil Hospital.

The remaining three had their wounds attended to by the railway medical men and the assistant health officer for Kowloon, and were allowed to return to their quarters until such time as they might return to duty.

NEW HARBOUR MASTER.

When H.M.S. Endymion arrived in port this morning she brought to the Colony the acting Harbourmaster of Hongkong, in the person of Mr. Lieut. Charles W. Beck, with, I am told, will fill that appointment pro tem, and pending a substantive appointment to the post. Mr. E. Jones, assistant and acting Harbourmaster, went on board on arrival of the vessel to welcome the new Chief of his department, who will, we understand, take over charge of his new duties to-morrow.

MORE PERJURY.

CHIEF JUSTICE AND THE WITNESS.

At the Supreme Court to-day, after Mr. George Street, warder, Victoria Gaol, had been acquitted and discharged on the charge of manslaughter his Honour the Chief Justice called up Chan Ling, one of the witnesses for the prosecution, and said that he believed that most of the statements he had made in his evidence were lies; but as he intended to commit the man to prison for committing perjury he must specify the lies mentioned. Witness said that he had been struck by one European warder in the Police Court; he said every warder had struck him. He had also said that he had complained to Mr. Craig, but it was plain from the records he had never done so. He would go to imprisonment with hard labour for three months.

Extraordinary Robbery in Germany.

A most astounding robbery has taken place at Koenigsberg, a suburb of Berlin. A man, dressed as a captain, stopped a squad of Guardsmen returning from drill, and ordered them to accompany him to Koenigsberg, where they entered the Town Hall and arrested the Mayor and the cashier, and after sending them to Berlin, under guard, seized £250, on the strength of a bogus Imperial order regarding Municipal irregularities. The supposed captain, then ordering the Guardsmen to remain in occupation of the Town Hall, decamped in a motor car.

THE T.K.K. AND THE PACIFIC SERVICE.

IMPORTANT STATEMENT BY THE PRESIDENT.

In reference to a report that a trust had been formed to control the steamship service across the Pacific, the T.K.K. Kaisha being concerned therein, Mr. Asano, President of the T.K.K. Kaisha, is credited in a Tokyo dispatch with some interesting observations. He is reported to have said that the company has acquired 14 years to entirely absorb the Pacific steamship service. To that end the company framed a plan to purchase the four Pacific Mail steamers—the Siberia, Manchuria, Manila, and Korea, and to build three new steamers, thus monopolising the trade with ten steamers, including the company's existing steamers, the America, Hongkong, Yokohama, and Nippon.

Last year Mr. H. H. Martin, President of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, came to Japan and was approached on the matter. Then the General Manager of the T.K.K. Kaisha, visited America, and negotiations for the purchase of the four P.M. steamers had made considerable progress, and a contract to conclude the deal was about to be signed when the Manchuria met with an accident near Honolulu, and the Manila shared a similar fate off Midway Island. Both steamers sustained heavy damages, the repair of which will involve an immense amount of money, and Mr. Asano thinks that when they are refitted their value will have deteriorated so that they may be no longer fit for the Pacific service. The purchase of the four steamers has consequently been abandoned. Some Japanese steamship-owners have under contemplation a scheme to open a new Pacific service, in addition to certain French steamers already in the field in competition with the T.K.K. Kaisha, and the report of the formation of a trust may have been purposely circulated in the particular interest of these competitors. The object of the T.K.K. Kaisha in the proposed extension of the Pacific service was only to prepare for the future competition of the Hamburg-American Line, and that T.K.K. Kaisha is not to be explained by one or two foreigners will be seen from the future policy of the company.—Japan Chronicle.

A GALLANT RESCUE.

THE WRECK OF THE "AKASHI MARU."

The past month has been so replete with important events—the typhoon in Hongkong, several sensational crimes in Shanghai, and important sporting events in all the intervals, that less attention has been paid to catastrophes of slighter importance, remarks the N. C. D. News. Brief reports have been received from Japanese sources as to the foundering of the Osaka Shosen Kaisha's steamer Akashi Maru off Amoy on the 30th ult., but beyond the fact that the vessel was a total wreck there have been no details. It was not until the C.N.S. Yachow arrived here, on the 12th inst. from Hongkong, that a true picture of the wreck of the Akashi Maru could be obtained, the Yachow having been the only boat which came in touch with the wrecked steamer after her accident before she went down.

The C.N.S. Yachow (Capt. Brown) left Wanchow for Hongkong on the 24th ult., with two Blue-Funnel lighters in tow. It was typhoon weather at the time and the passage was naturally slow on account of the tow, the steamer keeping well in shore to allow of anchoring if necessary. After various weather delays the Yachow passed Amoy on the morning of the 30th ult., and at the time noticed a steamer coming out, which was proved to be the Akashi Maru bound South. The Yachow having towed the Japanese steamer naturally had the heels of her and got well ahead, but presently, by her actions, it was seen that the Akashi was in difficulties and probably aground. On getting nearer Capt. Brown found that the Akashi Maru was actually aground on the reef known to mariners as the North Metopie shore, a very dangerous reef about 20 miles out from Amoy, and near Chaple Island. The steamer was flying signals of distress, signifying that she required immediate assistance, and as the Yachow came nearer it was seen that Tugs were breaking over the stranded vessel. It was seen at once that the Akashi could not get off without sinking in deep water and the Captain of the Yachow hoisted signals that his ship would stand by, getting as near as safety would permit, and take off the crew of the stranded steamer. The Akashi launched boats under difficulties—a heavy sea running and a strong gale blowing—and with great difficulty the first batch of people from the Akashi were taken aboard, their boats being already half full of water and ropes having to be used to get them aboard. The weather was meanwhile getting worse, and the Akashi was seen then to be slowly sinking, with the seas sweeping her clean, fore and aft. At this time the Akashi's boats' crews were so completely exhausted that their complement had to be filled by such members of the Yachow's crew as could be spared in order to transfer the people remaining on board the wreck which was quite by sinking. Eventually, under great risk, the captain, officers and remainder of the crew of the Akashi were transferred to the Yachow in an exhausted condition, together with, as far as can be present be estimated, $33,000 treasure. On their last trip the boats were interfered with by native pirates, and Capt. Brown found it necessary to give the order to fire upon them, in order to allow the rescuing boats to approach the sinking ship. The Yachow first came in touch with the Akashi at 8 a.m., and at 4 p.m. she proceeded on her voyage to Hongkong, 137 people having been rescued from the wreck under adverse circumstances and not a life lost. When last in view, the Akashi's deck was only a few feet above water, and no other steamer had sighted the wreck during the day. Next day at daylight a steamer passed the scene of the wreck, but reported nothing valuable, and it is presumed that the vessel was broken up by the heavy sea during the night. Had the Yachow been within hailing distance of the wreck, it is probable that it would have been rescued.

The refugees from the wrecked steamer were most humanely treated by Captain Brown and his staff, and were duly landed in Hongkong. As an appreciation of the services rendered by the Yachow, the master of the Akashi Maru sent the following letter to the agents of the China Navigation Company:—

Osaka Shosen Kaisha,
Hongkong, October 4, 1906.
Messrs. Butterfield and Swire.
Gentlemen, I hereby beg to offer you on behalf of my passengers, crew and myself, my most sincere thanks for the kind assistance to us by your steamer Yachow on September 30, 1906.

We also wish to testify as to the extreme kindness of Capt. Brown, his chief officer and second officer, engineers, all, and passengers, towards every one of us, when, after picking us up, made gifts of clothes and necessities to shipwrecked mariners, and officers of every possible assistance.

Yours respectfully,
(Signed) A. MUKAI,
(Master), late Akashi Maru.

FUNERAL OF MR. GUTERRES.

The Japan Chronicle, of 9th inst., says:—Yesterday morning the funeral took place at Kobe of Mr. F. F. Guterres, whose death was reported in Sunday's issue. The cortege left the residence of the family in Nakayama-cho at about eight o'clock for the Roman Catholic Church, where a requiem mass was held, Father Fage officiating. At the conclusion of the mass a benediction was pronounced by the Bishop of Osaka, Mr. Jules Charton, an old friend of the deceased who specially attended to perform this most impressive part of the service. The whole staff of the Hongkong and Shanghai Bank, with which deceased was so long connected, attended the service.

On the conclusion of the ceremony in the church the journey to Ono Cemetery was resumed, the officiating priest accompanying the cortege. The pall-bearers were Messrs W. Morais, J. Dunn, G. H. M. da Costa, E. M. Silver, Baker, J. J. Gomez, R. Remedios, and J. H. Duus.

A large number of beautiful and floral tokens of sympathy and respect were sent, one immense wreath from the staff of the Hongkong and Shanghai Bank being borne by four members of the junior staff.

VAH KAH-DER.

END OF THE GREAT OUTLAW.

SUMMARILY EXECUTED IN SOOCHOW.

A telegram to one of our native contemporaries yesterday, says the Shanghai Times of 15th inst., briefly announced that the notorious bandit-chief, Vah Kah-der, was executed in Soochow on Saturday morning.

According to the story current in native circles here Vah attempted to commit suicide in his cell on Friday night by swallowing a large gold finger ring, hoping to choke himself thereby; and the Governor, alarmed lest his prisoner should escape the law, and also influenced by reports that a plan was on foot to effect his rescue, ordered that Vah should be executed immediately. Accordingly early on Saturday morning Vah Kah-der was led out into the courtyard of the yamen, where the executioner took off his head with one stroke of the sword.

ACCOUNT BY A FOREIGN EYE-WITNESS.

The foregoing account is, as we say, from native reports, and is slightly inaccurate in some particulars. The following is the version of a foreign eye-witness of the grim tragedy, and may be accepted as the correct story of what took place:—

Vah Kah-der was decapitated on Saturday morning on the parade ground not far from the Soochow Chieh-hsien's yamen, in the presence of a large gathering of spectators, soldiers and mandarins.

In spite of all torture brought to bear upon him, he persistently denied every charge upon which he was arraigned. Finally under pressure, he confessed to some, and gave away the name of some of his associates.

Before daybreak on Saturday he was informed that the Magistrates were convinced of his guilt, and he was offered a good meal and wan-shin.

Partaking but sparingly of this refreshment he announced his self ready for death. In the meanwhile the native officials had been busy preparing the scene of execution.

At five o'clock in the morning the foreign-drilled soldiers filed on to the ground, accompanied by the officials. The soldiers formed a ring around the execution-ground and kept the morbid sightseers in check.

After a brief interval a procession of high native officials wended their way slowly on to the ground and seated themselves in the cumbersome native chairs. The chief officials seated themselves at a long table under a tent, from either side of which foreign-drilled troops stood in long lines at attention and behind these swarmed thousands of Chinese.

Suddenly there was heard the beating of a deep-sounding gong, and turning in the direction of the sound a detachment of Chinese braves was seen advancing at a quick step, and in their midst the doomed man being carried on a wicker tray, with flags upon his back denoting the crimes he was guilty of. The soldiers swung around in front of and facing the officials, and the condemned man was placed upon the ground.

Vah Kah-der, in spite of all the atrocious crimes he had committed, faced the officials unflinchingly. A map—one of the gongs—stepped up and removed the flags already mentioned, and arranged the doomed man's queue, pulling it forward and clear of his neck. The executioner, sword in hand, walked up to the official table to obtain his formal instructions to proceed with his duty. He bent one knee and obtaining all the officials' assent, he arose and making a cutting movement with his hand, walked back again quickly to the spot where Vah Kah-der lay, crouched in his chains. Uncovering his sleeves, above the elbow he proceeded with his ghastly work. A flash in the sun of a gleaming blade, and the head of Vah Kah-der, one of the most notorious criminals of late years, was rolling on the turf. The body sagged to one side, quivering, and the gruesome ceremony was over. Late in the evening relatives or friends removed the mutilated body for burial, and yesterday only a little blood-stained grass marked the scene of the last penalty of a bold and daring bandit, who for years had defied the laws of his country.

AN OBSTREPEROUS JAPANESE.

Kuniwo Tansuaki, a Japanese photographer, reeled into No. 2 Police Station a few minutes before midnight last night, and feeling his way to the sergeant's desk, related a story. The story was to the effect that he had been assaulted in the street by a woman of his own nationality. He rambled on for some time until finally he asked for the arrest of the woman on a charge of assault. A constable was despatched to look up the case, but he returned later and informed the officer that there was no truth in the Japanese story. The Japan was told of the discovery and asked to leave the station. He refused to leave, and doled out a string of expletives that fairly shocked his hearers. His behaviour was such that he had to be put out, but he returned once more. On three occasions he was put out of the station, and on the last trip, when the Japan dug the top of his boot into some of the station's flower-pots, which adorn the outside walls of the building, smashing a few, and sending earth and flowers flying in all directions, he was put into a cell. He became very repentant after this and was very polite in his apologies. He compensated the station for the damage done to the flower-pots and was looking eagerly for the officer-on-duty to say: "Go away and behave yourself," but nothing came, and he passed the night quietly in confinement. He came before Mr. H. H. J. Gompertz, at the Police Court, this morning, on a charge of being drunk and disorderly on the previous night. The Japan said he did not remember a thing of what occurred, and the Court fined him $5. Kuniwo was still writing letters to his friends in the police court waiting room when our reporter left, calling them to pay his fee.

FOR THE TYPHOON FUND.

As we have already announced in these columns, the Lusitano Club Smoker in aid of the Typhoon Relief Fund will be held at the Hall of the Club Lusit on to-morrow at 9 p.m. A very attractive programme has been arranged for the occasion consisting of songs, instrumental music, monologues, exhibitions of physical exercises, tests of strength and the comic operetta "His Only Coat," which is a side-splitting farce. Such a very deserving object as this is, and with such a bill of good things provided, there should be a large attendance.

FATALITY AT WANCHAI.

COOLIE FALLS THIRTY-FIVE FEET.

After lingering at Death's door for nearly twenty-four hours, and in great pain, Tso Kam, a coolie, of No. 12, Moon Street, Wanchai, expired in the Government Civil Hospital at nine o'clock yesterday morning, from cerebral hemorrhage.

Tso Kam and a number of other men lived together in a flat at No. 2, Moon Street. Being in a very bad state of health Tso was unable to do any work for about a month, but on Wednesday he buckled up somewhat and was able to take his meals with the other men. Samsu was freely drunk by the men during the dinner. The meal being over all the others, but the deceased, retired for the night, he going into the verandah, it was said, to cool himself.

Nothing untoward happened until about a quarter of an hour later, when the sound of something heavy dropped into the street, followed by the running of a crowd, was heard by those in the house. The men made for the verandah and found that Tso Kam was not there, but in the street below they saw an immense crowd. Going below they found their fellow-lodger lying on the ground and bleeding freely from several places. The police were summoned, and the unfortunate man, who, it was said, was by no means unconscious, was removed to the hospital. An examination was held and it was discovered that the injuries he sustained in the thirty-five feet drop were indeed serious and no hope was then entertained for his recovery. He died some hours later.

After making inquiries into the matter, the police was of opinion that it was not a case of suicide, but an accident. It was conjectured that when deceased went to get cool he sat on top of the verandah and he had either gone to sleep in that position or lost his balance and dropped into the street.

NEW APCAR STEAMER.

TRIAL TRIP OF S.S. "JAPAN."

The new steamer Japan, which has been built and engined by Messrs. Workman, Clark and Co. (Limited), Belfast, for Messrs. Aparcar and Co., of Calcutta, left the builders' wharf at Milewater Basin on 20th ult., and steamed down the Lough for high speed trials and adjustment of compasses. The Japan is the second vessel constructed by the firm for these owners, and is intended for the mail service between Calcutta and Chinese ports. She is a handsome vessel, 465 ft. in length, with a gross tonnage of over 6,000 tons, and has two complete steel decks, with pump bridge and top gullant forecastle, all the exposed decks being sheathed with teak. Special attention has been given to the accommodation for first and second-class passengers. The first-class state-rooms are placed in steel houses on the bridge deck at the forward and after ends of the engine and boiler casings. These rooms are replete with every convenience for the comfort of their occupants. The dining saloon in the forward deck-house is a handsome apartment with all the latest improvements, as it is supplied with steam from three double-ended and one single-ended multi-tubular boilers, working under Howden's system of forced draught. After a successful cruise the new steamer proceeded to Barry to load cargo for her voyage out to Calcutta.

THE KIANGNAN ARSENAL DOCK.

With reference to a statement which appeared a few days ago in a native local contemporary concerning the above institution, which was also translated in some of the foreign newspapers at the time, we are in a position to deny the pronouncement that the Kiangnan Dock had some 115,000,000 during the past year in consequence of which a new Manager had been appointed in the person of Tsoai Chang Shih-shan, the present Director of the Kiangnan Arsenal. As a matter of fact, under the superintendency of Admiral Sah and the capable management of Captain Y. F. Wu, both of the Liyang Imperial Navy and experts in their profession, the books of the Kiangnan Dock can show a gain of nearly Tis. 100,000 for the past year—the first of its existence, while there has always been more work offered than could possibly be accepted owing to the present circumscribed limits of the Dockyard. Ever since the inauguration of the new régime, with the exception of a few weeks' stoppage caused by the inundations last year, there have at any one time been no less than ten vessels on an average undergoing repairs at the hands of the Dockyard people—which, under the circumstance, appears to be pretty good.—*N.
